Journal Poster Abstract : HealTalk : A Journal Of Clinical Dentistry: peer reviewed journal; was introduced in 2008 expodent Banglore ,India. The journal mainly focuses on various editorials such as the original article, clinical research ,case reports, clinical innovation topic and scientific program coverage. simultaneously it also show cases the newer and latest technological updates in the field og dentistry with latest machinery , equipments and so on.

Since last 7 years Healtalk Dental Journal under the editor Dr U S Krishnanayak, has achieved many milestone including indexing with international data bases and following the norms according to WAME, ICMJE. Journal has always helped in boosting knowledge of general dentist and specialist in clinical knowledge and technique in various complex procedures. Journal has made event coverages of various dental college in India and the calendar year exhibitions too.

Healthtalk has always helped post graduate students in the field of dentistry in terms of enhancing their skill, knowledge and techniques in clinics. It is highly appreciated by post graduate students. Dentist across the country has always welcome the good case reports and techniques for their routine clinical work.

Here, in WAME 2015 meet, we would like to showcase our journal for dental as well as medical and allied health care field to give them international platform for representing their cases, original research work and related publications. With it's class and content the journal will help many practitioner in wide way. With this journal poster we would be highly obliged to learn and make learn everyone an ethical and technical scientific writing for publications.

Thank you.
